Beyond The Game Basketball Academy

PARTNERED WITH THE MALONE YMCA

Beyond The Game Academy is a basketball camp focusing on fundamental skills as well as addressing important aspects of the game outside the lines. Character development; including leadership, goal setting, sportsmanship, confidence, and life skills, is the main focus of this unique instructional academy. Our main objective is to help develop the athlete as a whole, challenging them to think with new perspective, beyond wins or losses, focusing instead on their effort, selflessness and competitive fire. Missy and Colleen's instruction, alongside additional coaching experts, will challenge the athlete to step outside of their comfort zone and push their mental and physical limits.

ABOUT US

Missy West

Missy West is a National High School Hall of Fame Inductee, Duke University women's basketball alumna, and former Franklin Academy HS three sport standout. As a twelve-year collegiate coach and motivational speaker on The Benefits of Sports Participation, Missy believes the Academy is the best way to share her knowledge from a lifetime in sport. Winning multiple ACC Championships and reaching the National Championship in 1999, Missy experienced success, failure, injury and adversity all making her realize playing basketball was about winning the game and winning in life. Her journey in basketball has been life altering and she is ready to share those same life lessons with you.

Colleen Healy

Colleen Healy holds the distinction of being the first walk-on in UConn women's basketball history awarded a full athletic scholarship via Naismith Hall of Fame Inductee & Head Coach Geno Auriemma. Colleen inspires with authentic storytelling of her unconventional journey resulting in her wearing the same uniform as basketball icons Rebecca Lobo (Naismith Hall of Fame) and Jennifer Rizzotti (Naismith Player of the year). Colleen traversed a path in her career requiring both the perseverance of accepting a walk-on's role and the determination allowing her to make huge plays down the stretch of a pivotal Big East win in the formative years of the UConn Dynasty.
